

Weekly Prayer

Sunday’s Readings

First Reading:
“When the Lord established the heavens I was there,
when he marked out the vault over the face of the deep;
when he made firm the skies above,
when he fixed fast the foundations of the earth; (Prv 8:27)

Psalm:
O Lord, our God, how wonderful your name in all the earth!
(Ps 8)

Second Reading:
Therefore, since we have been justified by faith,
we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ.
(Rom 5:1)

Gospel:
Everything that the Father has is mine;
for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine
and declare it to you.” (Jn 16:15)

Live The Liturgy

Inspiration of the Week

Jesus knew how it would be. He knew we would stumble in the dark, grasping for answers. And so he sent us a light: the Holy Spirit, the illumination of all that is true. Dare we look into the light? Are we ready to see the truth?

Observances for the week of June 15, 2025

- Sunday: The Most Holy Trinity; Father’s Day
- Thursday: St. Romuald, Abbot
- Friday: World Refugee Day
- Saturday: St. Aloysius Gonzaga, Religious
- Next Sunday: The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Devotions, Explained!

Popularized in the 17th century by a French priest named Fr. Claude Bernard, the Memorare is a prayer to the Blessed Mother in which the suppliant calls upon the maternal love and protection of Mary’s intercession in an hour of dire need.

Prayer of Christian Love

Glory be to God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit, who calls us into communion with Him, a life of grace and mystery, reconciliation and unity. Amen.

Dear God,

We ask you this Father’s Day and always to guide and protect the hearts of all men in fatherly roles who are striving to love with your heart and do your work. Give them pure, chaste, courageous, and creative hearts like Saint Joseph. Give them hearts that never tire of serving those they are called to love. Give them hearts that seek out their loved ones and gently turn their gaze to see You, who is Love. And we ask you, Father, to bless them abundantly today. We thank you for blessing us with those in fatherly roles in our lives. We entrust them to you. Amen.

THE INDWELLING OF THE HOLY TRINITY IN THE SOUL

We are made in God’s image and likeness. Just as God is God only in a Trinitarian relationship, so we can be fully human only as one member of a relationship of three partners. The doctrine of the Blessed Trinity challenges us to adopt an "I-and-God-and-neighbor" principle. I am a Christian insofar as I live in a relationship of love with God and other people. Like God the Father, we are called upon to be productive and creative persons by contributing to the building up of the fabric of our family, our church, our community and our nation. Like God the Son, we are called upon to reconcile, to be peacemakers, to put back together that which has been broken, to restore what has been shattered. Like God the Holy Spirit, it is our task to uncover and teach truth and to dispel ignorance. God – the father, son and Holy Spirit- dwells in our souls in grace not only with the presence of immensity, as He is to be found in everything but in a special way through sanctifying grace. We must accustom ourselves to seeking God in every one of life’s situations. Fr. Peter
